NOTICE .- District of Columbia Advertisements to be inserted in the BALTIMORE SUN are received at and forwarded from THE STAR office.

POLICE MATTERS .- Before Justice McKenna .-John McLaughlin was accused of indulging too freely in the "flowing bowl," of trying his pugilistic abilities upon a dark complexion back driver at the Railroad Depot, and raising a fuss generally. He was fined $5 and costs.

Geo. Carroll got drunk-very drunk-so much so that nothing short of the direst compulsion could induce him to let go the ground upon which he lay, and was grasping with the clutch of a drowning man. He was fined $2 and costs Hellen and Bridget disagreed about a bottle of whisky. Hellen used naughty words, and Bridget took offence and broke the bottle over Helien's head, producing an ugly cut, and spilling some claret. Hellen was fined $5 and costs, and Bridget, in default of bail, was committed for

Before Justice Williams .- Mary Downs and Mrs. Cantwell had a little "spat," during which there was a bandying of unpleasant epithets. An igno-minious invitation was extended to Mrs. Cantwell by the fair Mary, and Mrs. C., in response, rather more than insinuated that Mary would take pieces of red hot iron if no one was about to witness the circumstance. The justice, with his usual love of impartiality, fined both the accusing parties the sum of $1.91 each, and told them to behave better for the future.

Before Justice Thompson .- Charles Warren, (colored,) was arrested for profane and indecent language towards Georgiana Dade, also colored. It appeared in evidence that a difficulty occurred between the two at the residence of the latter, and that in the quarrel Warren threw a brick at Georgiana, and also threatened subsequently to inflict personal violence upon her. He was fined $5.91 cents in the case of the profane and indecent language, and bound over to keep the peace for six months in the latter case.

Before Justice Donn .- Wm. Babbington was arrested this morning by Officer Carter, for assault and battery on Dan'l Hickey. The parties deal in cows in Centre Market. Justice Donn's office was filled in a moment with a crowd of acquaintances of the parties, and it was difficult to hear the testimony, as all concerned seemed inclined to talk at the same time. It was finally ascertained that it was not a case for court, and Babbington was held to bail for peace.

Virginia alias Mary Williams was arrested by Officer Fanning, for stealing a silk dress and a shawl from Miss Elizabeth Everett. The articles were recovered, the girl confessed the act, and was fully committed for court. She had been employed in the family of Mr. S. De Camp, from whence the articles were stolen, Miss E. residing with Mr. De Camp's family. After conveying the girl to jail, Officer Fanning recovered other goods, ribbons, joseys, &c., which he will retain to be identified.

ACTS APPROVED .- The Mayor has signed and approved the following acts and joint resolutions of the City Councils :- Acts making appropriation for the erection of a cesspool at the entrance of alley in square 429; making appropriation for the judicial expenses of the Corporation; granting the use of the basement of the public school on Sixth street west, between D and E south, for Sunday school purposes; for relief of Wm. H. Taylor; to grade and gravel Third street east, from Maryland avenue to C street north; to trim and gravel F street north, from Fourth street west to New Jersey avenue; joint resolutions authorizing the Mayor to pay one month's salary to the widow of the late Water Purveyor; inviting the Committee on the District of Columbia of the two Houses of Congress to visit the Potomac Water Works.

THE VOLUNTEERS .- The military board which was charged with drafting a plan for the reorganization of the District militia having performed their duty so far as a general organization is concerned, have a meeting to-night, we learn, for the purpose of preparing a bill to present to Congress for the establishment of one or more independent regiments, upon a plan which will meet the views of the corps already in existence. We are informed that the bill proposes to establish these independent regiments on a plan which will include every arm of the service, cavalry, artillery, rifles, and infantry. The regiments to be armed and equipped by the Government: the officers and men to be exempt from jury duty; to be subject to call in any case of emergency; and to receive pay for their service at those times.

FOUNDRY CHAPEL CONCERT .- The public are advised to attend the Concert to be given next Tuesday night by the choir attached to the above chapel, assisted by some of the city's best musical talent. The programme embraces music of undoubted excellence, which has seldom if ever been sung before a Washington audience, among which may be noted the beautiful cantata of "The Transient and the Eternal," by Romberg; Luther's "Judgment Hymn;" Handel's "Great Double Hail Stone Chorus," and other excellent things, which will be worth hearing. Go early.

PROF FOWLER'S LECTURES on Prenology, at Philharmonic Hall, close finally this evening, the subject being, by request, "Intellectual culture and self-improvement, memory, how to become good thinkers, writers, and speakers, the basis of success in business, &c. The lecturer also proposes to give the phrenological development necessary for a good President and Mayor; and it is understood that the committee on examinations will make an effort to have one or more prospective candidates for Mayor upon the stand for ARREST OF FUGITIVES -This merning, Mr Baley Brown, keeper of the Anacostia bridge, brought to the office of Justice Donn a colored man and woman suspected of being runaways from Maryland. The man is named Mandred Harrison, and says he belongs to Mrs. Maria Duvall but works as a carpenter for Thos. E. Berry. The woman says she belongs to the same person. but the man says he does not know her at all They were committed to jail to await a requisition from the owners.

ODD FELLOWS' FUNERAL .- Central Lodge, No. 1, I. O O. F., (Jackson Edmonston marshal.) were out in procession Thursday afternoon, proceded by Withers' band, attending the funeral of their late fellow-member, Mr. Jere. McKnew. The funeral services at the house were conducted by Rev. Messrs. Samson and Kennard, and the funeral cortege proceeded to Glenwood Cemetery, where, after the Odd Fellows' solemn services by Chaplain Martin Johnson, the body was placed in the ground.

CHARGE OF LARCENY. - Thursday evening, Officer Arnold arrested a young man named Lowe, in the lower part of the Fifth Ward, on a charge of stealing a gill nett, valued at $10, from Capt. Edward Barry. He was taken to the office of Justice Ferguson. on Pennsylvania avenue, where an examination was held, and the accused committed to jail for court. The officers are in pursuit of two other lads who are suspected of complicity in the taking of the net.

OUR GEORGETOWN readers are to have a fine literary treat on Monday night in the interesting lecture on Africa, to be delivered by Mr. Walter S. Hunter. Mr. Hunter has the great advantage as a lecturer of having been an actaal observer of what he describes. His lecture, we hear, gives much valuable information concerning this country, (Africa,) concerning which so much interest is felt and so little is really known.

VISIT TO MOUNT VERNON -This morning, the Knights Templar of this city started upon a visit to Mount Vernon, accompanied by several visiting Knights. The Order was not out as strong as we have seen it, the day (Saturday) being unfavorable for a full parade. The Knights were in regalia, and had with them their handsome banners. Withers' Band supplied the music.

THE PATTI CONCERT.-Immense has been the solicitude to-day to get seats for the Patti concert, and we dare say that every available inch of Willards' Hall will be occupied to-night The programme is undoubtedly the finest ever presented at a concert here. We call attention to it in another column. A musical feast indeed!

THE NATIONAL RIFLES military campany is augmenting in numbers and perfecting in the drill rapidly. The increase in the ranks has induced them to remove their armory to more extended quarters, and they have accordingly rented the hall over Franklin's paper hanging establishment, corner of Ninth and D streets, for the purpose.

fendants in error. Adjourned until Monday.

MR. MURDOCH'S LECTURE AND READINGS .- A large audience greeted Mr. J. E. Murdoch at the Smithsonian last evening, on which occasion he favored the public of Washington with a Dramatic reading of the principal scenes, dialogues, soliloquies, &c., of the tragedy of Hamlet, accompanied by remarks on the grandeur and genius of Shakspeare, as therein delineated. His lecture was delivered in a most eloquent style, and was warmly applauded by the large auditory. This entertainment was given in aid of the Ladles' Mount Vernon Association. Mr. M. was introduced by the Hon. John Cochrane, of N. Y.

Assaults .- D. Genau was arrested yesterday by Officer Parbam, and taken before Justice Donn, for an assault and battery on Philip Rider. It proved to be a trifling matter, and Justice Donn ield him to bail for peace, and fined him $1.94 for profanity.

A. R. Allen, detective officer, went to the same office on being informed that a watrant was pending against him for an assault and battery on Mr. Forman, reporter for the "States and Union" newsper, and gave bail for court.

THE UNION ASSOCIATION of the Seventh Ward held a large meeting on Thursday evening last, at Island Hall. Hon Mr. Gilmer of N. C., and Hon. R. Thompson of Ind., were present, and addressed the meeting in denunciation of sectionalism, giving vivid pictures of the consequences of disunion, and urging the necessity for the union of conservative men for the sake of the Union. The Association adjourned to meet again the following Thursday.

A FIGHT IN A RESTAURANT.—Last night, Wm. Lunsford and Patrick Mulligan met in a restaurant in the Second Ward. Mulligan spoke of his ability to do considerable in the pugilistic way, and Lunsford undertook to test his ability. While preparing, Mulligan struck him, and Lunsford returned the blow with a tumbler on the top of Mulligan's head. They were arrested by officers Fanning and Eckloff, and taken to the guardhouse, and held to bail for court by Justice Donn.

THE THEATRE. - To-night, the accomplished Miss Davenport takes her benefit at the Theatre, and makes her last appearance previous to her departure for California, and will personate Dot, in Dickens' "Cricket on her Hearth," and Peg Woffington in the second act of "Masks and Faces," in which she will also chant the Marseilles Hymn in French, by request.
